

Where's My Login?

Written by John H.B. Latrobe, Jr.
Saturday, 09 January 2010 22:04 -

You may be wondering what happened to the login section on the main page. That login capability was mainly for me to be able to login as admin and run the site. It also let anonymous people create their own logins that served no useful purpose at all. The only useful logins are to the genealogy section and those are maintained separately. So, I removed the login section.